PREFACE

A large portion of the material presented in this paper comes from Miss Dorothy K. Landis, Historian of the Bucks Co., Penna. Landis-Landes Reunion 1948-1954. Her collection is in great detail and from many sources, including data extracted from books and other publications, records at Doylestown, Penna. courthouse and grave-stones of descendants. Grateful acknowledgement is made for use of this valuable material.

Miss Landis has been accompanied on many of her field trips by her friend, Miss Mary R. Martenis. In fact, it was Miss Martenis (not descended from any Landes family) who in August 1954 found the long searched-for grave of Mary Landes Loyer (daughters of Joseph and granddaughter of Abraham Landes d. 1791).

Many people gave Miss Landis information on this family, including: Mr. Oliver M. Landes of Pipersville, Mrs. Abraham S. Leatherman, Mrs. Emma Yoder Landis, Mrs. Deborah Landis, Mrs. Norwood M. Landis, the late Mr. Henry S. Landes ofouderton, Mr. Henry A. Alderfer, Mrs. Anna Mary Slotter Jones, Mrs. Watson Plack, Mrs. Amanda L. Beck, the late Mrs. Emma L. Shelly, Miss Emma Russelman, Miss Dora L. Cassel, Mrs. Jacob Dewees, Mr. & Joseph D. Landis of Dublin, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. B. Harrison Landis.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Harrison Landis of near Perkasie, Penna. have been active in obtaining data on Magdalena Landes Moyer, Samuel Landes and Benjamin Landis -- Mr. Landis being descended from these three children of Abraham & Magdalena Landes. Mr. Landis has searched for data on other branches as well and has spent much time untangling the land records of Daniel Landes and Benjamin Landis who purchased their father's real estate from his executors. Mr. Landis also loaned his copy of Hunsburger History by Byron K. Hunsburger which lists the descendants of Moses and Elizabeth (Hunsburger) Landis.

Mr. Landis obtained material on branches of the Samuel Landes and Benjamin Landis families, which had moved from Penna. from the following: Miss Ruby Landis and Mrs. Celia Landis Harris of Ohio, Mrs. Rose Sherk of Kansas, Miss Iva Whitis of Ohio and the Noah Ezra Landis family of Edwardsville, Michigan while Mr. & Mrs. Joseph D. Landis of Dublin, Pa. furnished data on both near and faraway branches.

Additional data came from:

Line of Sarah L. Grose -- Except as noted on page 24 and for data taken from the "Funk Genealogy" by Rev. A. J. Frotx, Mr. Farlee C. Grose and Mrs. Elma Grose Leach, both of Ohio, sent all the information (17 pages) presented on this line. The birthdates of Sarah L. and Daniel Grose were recorded in a Bible belonging to their son Abraham Grose, 1784-1854.

also Mr. & Mrs. Howard L. Shelly, Rev. Paul R. Shelly, and Miss Flora Fellman.

{I} Abraham Landes b. about 1725, d. 1791 Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Penna. He m. in Penna., Magdalena, b. about 1730, d. after 1796, a dau. of Jacob & Barbara Oberholtzer. (See Oberholtzer Genealogy by Rev. A. J. Fretz).

It is believed that Abraham Landes(d. 1791) came to this country in the 1740's from one of the small Germanic states, perhaps Hesse. He may have arrived in Sept. 1749 when Rudolph Landes came (See Strassburger, List of Penna. German Pioneers Vol. I, p. 415.)

(The Landis-Landes Families originated in Switzerland, however, many of them having moved to the Palatinate and neighboring states in the 17th century for religious reasons. Accounts of this removal are found in the Landis Reunion Booklets of 1936 & 1937)

While no positive proof has been found to show that Abraham Landes(d.1791) and Rudolph Landes (d. 1802) were brothers, the following evidence points to that relationship. We learn from "Two Interesting Letters" in Hartzler & Kauffman Menn. Church History pp. 401-405 that Abraham and Rudolph had received a letter from a friend in Heppenheim, Hesse in 1786 and that in 1787 Rudolph replied to it. It is evident from these letters, given elsewhere in this paper, that Abraham & Rudolph had relatives in or near Heppenheim. It is interesting that this correspondence to and from abroad persisted after the Revolutionary War despite the many elapsed years since they had left their early home. Abraham & Rudolph Landes are buried in adjacent lots in Deep Run Mennonite Cemetery in Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., their markers still legible. No markers have been found for their wives, Magdalena and Sara, daughters of Jacob and Barbara Oberholtzer.

In 1758 Abraham Landes was ordained a minister of the Deep Run Circuit of the Mennonite Church (Hist. of the Mennonites of the Franconia Menn. Conference by John C. Wenger, pub. 1937).

In 1760 and again in 1784 he was deeded land in Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. and is mentioned in the tax lists of that township from 1779-1787 (Penna. Archives, Series 3, Vol. 13.) In 1784 the tax record shows that he had 200 acres, 1 dwelling and 10 white inhabitants. The Federal Census of 1790 shows 4 males and 2 females in his household.

On Feb. 18, 1791 Abraham Landes made his will, which was written in German (apparently by Rudolph Landes) and witnessed by Rudolph Landes and Jacob Godschalk. His will made provision for his wife Magdalena and named their eleven children in the order given below. The exact date of his death is not known but his will was recorded April 4, 1791.

Children of Abraham and Magdalena (Oberholtzer) Landes: Abraham, Sarah b. 1752, Barbara, Mary wife of Ulrich Basler, Jacob, Henry, Magdalena b. 1762, Samuel b. 1766, Daniel, Joseph b. 1770, and Benjamin.

A further word about Rudolph Landes (d. 1882, from the Landis-Landes Reunion Reports of 1933, 1938 & 1950: He was a deacon of the Deep Run Menn. Church and also served in the Revolutionary War. He recorded on a leaf of a Martyr's Mirror his birthdate (Dec. 31, 1732), the date of his marriage to Sara Oberholtzer (Nov. 20, 1753) and the birthdates of their ~~own~~ children. (No similar record for the Abraham Landes family has so far been found.)

TWO INTERESTING LETTERS.

The following letters are inserted here because of their historical value and because of the deep, fervent piety for which these letters are remarkable. It gives us a glimpse of the spirit of the times. Rudolph Landes was the first deacon in the Deep Run Hannonite congregation, Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

Heppenheim, near Alzey,

April 15th, 1786.

DEAR WORTHY FRIENDS:

I desire to express my heartfelt wish for your true welfare in all pertaining to the thriving of body and soul. The letter from you dear friends, Abraham and Rudolph Landes dated April 12, 1784, we received on the 17th of August, 1784, with great pleasure, and through it ascertained as to your general health. We wish to announce that all who are still living of us are, praise the Lord, in good bodily health. Yet it has pleased the Lord, who alone is Ruler over life and death, to demand from us Elizabeth Burkyen in the month of May as also Christian Schmitt on the 14th of June of 1784. They were called out of this toilsome world and transformed to Eternity, where in accordance with the Christian faith they will increase the inhabitants of the other world. May the Almighty in his mercy prepare us for a joyful following. I also announce that the youngest daughter, Christina, of Elisabeth Burkyen, deceased, was wedded to Rudolph Forrer also of "Merzheimer Hof," and is in possession of the farm of her father, Jacob Burkyen, deceased. Furthermore I give you without concealment the information that within the past three or four years many of the families from this and other neighborhoods have moved into the kingdom of Poland. This journey of over four hundred hours was made by my brother John, leaving on the 10th of October, 1784, as also my brother Henry, who wedded Catherine Brollin, reformed religion, from Harxheim, on June 13th, 1785, they together with Jacob Muller of Rudelsheim, with his son-in-law, Jacob Bursched of Harxheim. The journey was partly by water, but mostly overland. They went to improve their condition. The country is very fertile and does not belong to the Kingdom of Poland any more. It is called now Mehro-Gallica, which came into possession of the Roman Empire Majesty Joseph II, during the war times. Through his glorious and more than wise government, many colonists have settled there, as also Estates of Nobility and church. They are furnished with good new homesteads with about fifty acres of land without any cost, also cattle, implements, house utensils, just as farmers need, also several free years without taxation.

They have as yet not been assigned to places but hope to shortly. If they haven't been, they will certainly before long as they receive support until they are assigned their land. The favours which these people receive from the wise Joseph, is more than great. Not alone this, he is also a philanthropist whose equal cannot be found among the crowned heads. He permits all religions which before his time was not permitted. I wrote you a letter which I presume you received in the fall of '84, through my brother-in-law, Jacob Rupp, who visited us from Pennsylvania, at that time, which contained a description of former times. Further I wish to acquaint you with the fact that the year '84 was such a complete failure that the oldest persons remember none such; fruits vegetables and crops of all kinds were very scarce, causing great hardship at the beginning of '85. The pen cannot describe it at all. Now every thing is again blest and cheaper than in many long years and the growing crops look well with us. We live in hopes of soon getting a letter from you. Information is asked if Casper Hardt, brother of Jacob Hardt, did not come to you about 12 years ago.

Mrs. Landes, her children, I and mine send you many greetings. Remember us in your prayers, we are willing to do likewise with God's sanction. With compliments and under the protection of the Almighty, I am

Your true and sincere friend,

JACOB RUPP.

P.S. - The above greetings include the entire circle of friendship- the Landes family, I must particularly mention Frederick Landes, who is just my age. I would like also to receive a few lines from him some time.

Adieu.

REPLY OF RUDOLPH LANDES.

April 13, 1787, Bucks County,
Bedminster Township at Deep Run.

Worthy Friends:

The Lord be with you through His holy, righteous Spirit, guide you through His sincere grace, love and mercy to the path of love and peace. This I wish you upon your friendly greetings, may the Lord and God of all grace give us and you all, strength to follow Him on the path upon which He preceded us through pure love to our eternal salvation and happiness, and loved not life unto death -- His alone be praise, honor and commendation in all eternity. Amen.

Beloved friend and Cousin Rupp, your writing of April 15, 1786 we received and through it perceived that you were in part well, which was very pleasing to us. Also that some of our friends departed this life, and I hope that God in His mercy through Jesus Christ has received and taken them into life eternal, that we may with the wise virgins be prepared, and that our light may be kept burning and our lamps not extinguished; that adorned in the unsoiled wedding robe, we may, like unto mankind, wait for the Lord -- that the Friend, the Lord, the Bridegroom may come when He pleases and would not then become alarmed, but would be joyful and enter with Him to the nuptials -- may our good Lord help us thereto through Jesus Christ. Amen.

In regard to how we are getting along, we can say as far as bodily health is concerned, we are presumably well, thanks to the Lord, and we have also full and plenty to eat. Nor are we alarmed with war, although they are troubled inland with little warfare. What will come of it, only God knows. It is mostly on account of the money demands. A large portion of the Pennsylvania inhabitants cannot become reconciled to this, and the humbling of the Lord's name does not please many. They have as yet been unaccustomed to it in this country. Yet again there are those who use the name of the Lord to greedily fill their hands and pockets with the farmer's possessions, and as they are no better than others, it causes indignation. Christ's followers have only to give attention to the Lord's commands. He saith give unto the king whatsoever belongeth to the king, and to God what is his, and to love thine enemies and to plead with the offender, that you may be children of your Father in heaven, says Christ.

It is asked if Casper Hardt had not come to this country. I answer yes, and is still here as much as I know -- away up country somewhere. I wrote about him to you last year, about him and Jacob Zimmerman, as they came to this country. Jacob Hardt is still living, as far as I know. He lived thirty hours trip from here. Furthermore you write that your brother had moved into the kingdom of Poland, regarding this I should like to hear more, providing it is not asking too much of you. Regarding the remaining friends, the other letters will inform me. I heard that your brother-in-law, Jacob Rupp, had been in good health this winter. Also the name of the widow and children of Jacob Landes. I and my housewife and children again send their heartfelt greetings, and to remember one another in prayers is my wish. The beloved God who has brought us this far and aided us will, I hope, help us lay our weary heads into the dust of the earth to rest until the Lord shall awaken us to the glory, comfort and happiness of yonder life. As this goes beyond all thought, may the Lord therefore give us the strength to lead such lives that we may there look upon one another in eternal joy and splendor. This I wish you and us all through Jesus Christ. Amen. I would like to know if Cousin Landen's daughters, Magdalen and Grette, are still living. I send them and theirs hearty greetings, as also all our friends in this writing, which has been done in simplicity and love.

From your friend,

RUDOLPH LANDES.

It has frequently come to my mind that I would like to know if old Christian Weber, William Kramer, Jacob Dahlem and John Haan are still living or any of them or who is in charge of the household of our Mennonite community in Upper Florschheim where I was received in great poverty and ill health and taken up in the congregation of Jesus Christ. Which now being nearly 38 years ago comes to my thoughts that though we wrote to one another from time to time, I fear the time at hand when we mortals will sink or have sunken to sleep and soon to hear "a cry at midnight, and behold the Bridegroom cometh." Now as the one to make the cry is not revealed to us, we should call to one another and be on guard as the enemy is watching and it is said goes about us like a roaring lion to devour us. Oh, that we may withstand him through our belief -- though we are strangers by sight I hope that in united belief and united hope and in love, the Lord may strengthen our foundations that we may go on from strength to strength, from might to might, until we reach God in Zion, to this may God help us through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Remember us also in your prayers. I am willing so far as the Lord aids me in my weakness to do likewise. Take this up in love as it is done in love.

To a heartfelt friendly and brotherly greeting in the Lord from

RUDOLPH LANDES.

N.B. -- Cousin Rupp, I trust you will execute the wishes expressed, and hope you will write, and if we live and the Lord is willing, we will continue our correspondence.

II Abraham Landes Jr., b. about 1750, d. _____.

No information has been found on this eldest son of Abraham and Magdalena Landes after 1791, nor of his residence after 1782.

It is assumed that he is the Abraham Landes who was listed as a single man in the tax lists of 1779 & 1782 for Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Penna. (Penna. Archives: Series 3, Vol. 13)

In 1791 he is named first in the list of the eleven children in the will of his father. Since his younger brothers Jacob and Samuel were named executors of their father's will, it may be that Abraham Jr. had moved from Bucks Co. prior to that time.

There are many of the name Abraham Landes to be considered in trying to trace Abraham Landes Jr. The tax lists for Bucks Co. show also an Abraham Landis of Buckingham Twp., in 1782, 1783 & 1784 and two of this name in Milford Twp. in 1785 & 1786 and one in 1787. The Federal Census of 1790 for Bucks Co., in addition to the record of Rev. Abraham Landes on page 55, records on page 56 an Abraham Landis who had in his family one male over 16, two males under 16 and one female.

The Census of 1790 for Penna. also shows the following: Abraham Landess of Cumberland Co., Abraham Landers of Fayette Co. (Franklin Twp.), Abraham Landish of Fayette Co. (Washington Twp.) and Abm. Landet of Lancaster Co. (Cocalico Twp.).

In Lancaster, Pa., on March 26, 1793 an Abraham Landis m. Susan Harlacher. He was b. Oct. 27, 1750; d. Aug. 25, 1832; bur. Middle Creek Cem. Ephrata Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa. (See Landis Reunion Booklet for 1941) His parents' names are unknown but his birth year seems to agree with that of Abraham Landes Jr. However, Mr. Charles M. Coldren (of the Lancaster Co. Landis Reunion) writes that this Abraham (1750-1832) is believed by some to descend from John Landis (1696-1756) who settled near Ephrata. See also Fahnestock Genealogy by H. Minot Pitman and History of Perry Co., Pa. by Hain.

II Sarah Lantier b. April 12, 1752, d. Plumstead Twp., in 1823,

When the heirs of Jacob Grose, 1788-1833, granted in 1851 power of attorney to Jacob Grose, 1825-1910, Joseph Grose signed as an unmarried son. It is assumed that Joseph was still unmarried at the time of his death in 1853. The following entry is found in a Bible which had belonged to his father: Joseph died July 11, 1853, Aged 26 yr. 4 days.

IV Magdalena Grose b. June 20, 1830; d. Oct. 1, 1859; bur. Dennis Cem., near Findlay, Ohio. She m. Joseph Hoot (a brother of the wife of Daniel Gross- see above) b. _____ d. after 1859.

II Barbara Landes b. about 1754

There is a tombstone in Deep Run Mennonite Cemetery, Bucks Co., Penna., which is probably hers. It reads: Barbara Landesin d. July 5, 1796.

II Mary Landes b. about 1756; she married Ulrich Basler.

An Oelerigh Pausler is found in the Federal Census of 1790 for Upper Milford Twp., Northampton Co., Pa. His family consisted of one male over 16, one male under 16 and one female. (Upper Milford Twp. became a part of Lehigh Co. after that county was formed from Northampton Co. in 1812.)

The History of Lehigh County, Penna. by Roberts, pp 773-774, shows that Ulrich Bassler was taxed in 1781 and 1812 in Northampton & Lehigh Counties respectively.

From Wenger's History of Mennonites, Franconia District, p. 221, we learn that on January 20, 1795 Ulrich Basler and Abraham Schantz, Trustees, bought of Conrad Meyer a second tract of 39 perches to enlarge the burying ground at Upper Milford Church, Upper Milford Twp., near Zionville, Pa. (now in Lehigh County but then in Northampton).

In Penna. German Pioneers by Strassburger (Vol I, pp 99-101) we find that Ulrich Basler age 36, arrived in Philadelphia on Oct. 11, 1732. This may be the father or grandfather of the Ulrich Basler who married Mary Landes.

II Jacob Landes b. about 1758, d. 1820; did not marry.
Occupation: Farmer and Weaver.

Jacob Landes is listed as a single man in the Tax Lists of Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. from 1781 to 1787. See Penna.
Archives, Series 3, Vol. 13.

In 1798 he resided in Plumstead Twp., presumably near his widowed sister Sarah Groce whose children he helped to raise,[#] and was still living there when he died in 1820.

Jacob Landes acted as executor or administrator of his relatives' estates as the need arose. Starting in 1790 he was named co-executor of the estate of his brother-in-law, Daniel Groce. The next year, 1791, he and his younger brother Samuel Landes served as executors of the estate of their father, Abraham Landes. In 1813 Jacob and his brother Henry Landes were appointed administrators of the estate of their younger brother Joseph Landes. Jacob's own will, made
May 5, 1816 and recorded Oct. 28, 1820, named his brother
Henry Landes as executor. He left his estate to his brothers and sisters then living and to the descendants of any who had predeceased him... See Will Book 9, page 419, Doylestown, Pa.
Register of Wills Office.

[#] He also helped rear Christian Landes, eldest son of his brother Joseph.

II Henry O. Landes b. about 1760 d. --- ; occ. Cordwainer

At Henry's death his widow requested that her son Henry Landes and David Kulp be appointed Administrators. On June 2, 1834 the surviving Administrator Henry Landes rendered a statement of settlement on the estate of his father, Henry Landes late of the Township of Plumstead.

(See File No. 6554, Register of Wills Office, Doylestown, Bucks Co., Penna.)

Henry O. Landes with his brother Jacob administered the estate of their brother Joseph Landes who died in 1813 and Henry was named executor of Jacob Landes' will which was filed October 28, 1820.

It is believed that Henry O. Landes may have been twice married (See Census of 1800 record given above) but no definite information has been found to far concerning the possible first marriage. However, the Wisner Genealogy by Rev. A. J. Fratz (published 1893) shows that Henry Landes married Hannah Wisner b. -- d. ---, daughter of Rev. Abraham Wisner who was born August 21, 1746 in Bucks County, Pa. The children of Henry and Hannah Landes were: Abraham, Jacob, Henry, Joseph, Sarah, Susan, Hannah, Daniel and Elizabeth.

III Abraham W. Landis b. -- d. young

III Jacob W. Landis b. Oct. 9, 1801 d. March 3, 1867 married 1st Catharine Wisner on Nov. 7, 1826 and had Mary, Henry, Hannah and Eliza Landis.
